APPLICATION FOR POST-JUDGMENT WRIT OF GARNISHMENT

The Judgment Creditor, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), makes this application pursuant to the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act of 1990, 28 U.S.C. § 3205, and Rule 69(a) of the Rules of Civil Procedure and hereby requests the issuance of continuing writs of garnishment directed to: CENTENNIAL BANK.

Based on information and belief, the SEC believes that the Garnishee has possession, custody or control of property in which Defendant Brent A. Seaman, has a substantial non-exempt interest.

In support of its application, the SEC would show the Court as follows:

1. The Judgment ordered Brent Seaman, to pay $3,617,241.00 in disgorgement and prejudgment interest, and ordered a civil penalty of $1,000,000 (“Judgment”).
2. The defendant has failed to satisfy both the disgorgement and the civil penalty in this case, thus the Commission seeks a writ under Rule 69(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Florida Civil Procedure 77.10 to enforce the satisfaction of the judgment.
3. The Commission seeks two writs because disgorgement judgments and penalty judgments are enforced differently. The disgorgement portion of the Judgment is enforced through state law practice under Rule 69(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A civil money penalty is a “debt” within the definition of the Federal Debt Collection Procedure Act (“FDCPA”) 28 U.S.C. §3001 et seq. The FDCPA provides the exclusive civil procedure for the collection of a debt owing to the United States or its agencies such as the Commission. Accordingly, the Commission seeks a writ of execution pursuant to Rule 69 to enforce the disgorgement portion of the judgment, and a writ of garnishment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 3205 to enforce the penalty portion of the judgment.
4. Defendant Brent A. Seaman, currently resides in Naples, Florida.<sup>1</sup>
5. Defendant’s SSN: xxx-xx-3740
